Getting Started

1. Navigate to: www.coflein.gov.uk/en
2. Click the "Search" field to search across RCAHMW site records and archives.

3. For example, type "Hillfort" and press [[enter]] to look for hillforts in Wales. A list of Sites and Archives will appear. For this demonstration we are looking at the Sites tab results.

Using the Filter Panel and Online Image filter

- Click on "Site Type" (in the filter panel on the left-hand side) to refine your search results and show only those you select. The menu will expand to reveal all recorded site types.

The screenshot shows the RCAHMW search interface. On the left is a filter panel with the following sections:

- Filter: "If what you're looking for doesn't appear, please refine your search using the Advanced Search"
- Applied Filters: (empty)
- Filter By:
 - Period (checked)
 - Site Type (checked) - This filter is highlighted with a red circle in the image.
 - Unitary (Local) Authority (checked)
 - Community (checked)

The main search results area shows a grid of results. At the top, there is a "Sort" dropdown set to "Relevance" and an "Online Images Only" toggle which is turned on. Below this is a pagination bar showing page 1 of 81 results.

The search results are as follows:

Image	NPRN	Site Name	Period	Location	Image Count	Thumbnail Count
	141162	Breiddin Hillfort; Breidden Hillfort	HILLFORT	Multiperiod Bausley with Criggion Powys	57	39

There are a number of smaller postern gateways, as with Garn Goch. The best-preserved of the fort was re-roofed in the recent works..

Inside the hillfort we see one of the most clearly visible Iron Age and Roman villages in an arresting hillfort to visit, almost a 'Welsh Pompeii' considering its levels of preservation. It is unusual. The early Iron Age roundhouses were later subdivided in Romano-British times with clusters of D-shaped buildings and crude shelters. At least one house, hut 41 again, has been used for burial suggested by the unusual find of a beaded collar from the burial to accompany Iron Age and Roman burials. 18. Use the Show dropdown to show more images per page.

The screenshot shows a web application interface. At the top is a map. Below it is a navigation bar with four tabs: 'Details', 'Images' (selected), 'Related Sites', and 'Related Archives'. Below the navigation bar is a search results section. On the left is a filter sidebar with the following text: 'Filter', 'If what you're looking for doesn't appear, please refine your search using the Advanced Search', 'Applied Filters', 'Filter By', 'Date' (with a dropdown arrow), and 'Originator' (with a dropdown arrow). To the right of the sidebar is the search results area. It starts with 'Show 25 per page' (the '25' is circled in orange), followed by 'Sort Date (Descending)' and a pagination control showing '1 2 3 ... 5'. Below this is a grid of four aerial photographs of a mountainous landscape, each with a 'CBHC' watermark.

19. Select the "Date (Ascending)" option from the Sort dropdown menu to sort the images by the date they were created.

The screenshot displays a web application interface. At the top, there is a map of a region with various geographical features and labels. Below the map is a navigation bar with three tabs: "Images" (highlighted in red), "Related Sites", and "Related Archives". Underneath the navigation bar, there is a search results section. On the left, there is a sidebar with search filters, including a "By" dropdown menu and a "nator" filter. The main content area shows a grid of images. The top row contains two large images of a mountainous landscape, each with a "CBHC" logo in the bottom left corner. Above the images, there is a pagination and sorting control. The "Sort" dropdown menu is highlighted with an orange circle, and the "Date (Ascending)" option is selected. The pagination shows "1 2 3 ... 5" with arrows on either side.
